

Red Oak — Natural

Countryside Collection

Product Information

The linear grain of this rift and quarter sawn timber likens the Red Oak tree that grows tall and straight, a pillar of the forests in eastern North America. Our Natural finish celebrates the wood's hue and grain figure, offering a refined look that is equal parts warm and clean, classic yet contemporary.

Source

Harvested from Northeast forests in coordination with sustainable management plans that support long-term forest health & biodiversity.

Impact

Timber from regenerative forestry practices in local working forests support conservation, resilience, and green jobs.
